Óbidos is one of the most visited villages in Portugal (national monument). It is a walled medieval town with a castle and narrow streets with white and little houses, and several churches. There are many restaurants and bars with the typical 'Ginga de Óbidos' made with alcohol and fruit. The region has moderate weather and is not too hot in the summer. There is a lagoon with calm waters that are perfect for children and less able swimmers. The fisherman's town of Peniche is near by with very good seafood. To enjoy the area is necessary to visit the island of Baleal that is linked to the mainland by a narrow strip of sand. Near by you can visited the spa town of Caldas da Rainha, the monastery of Alcobaça and the fortifications of Torres Vedras.
